Julien Andlauer is a regular driver for Dempsey Proton Racing in the GTE-Am class of the FIA WEC. He shares driving duties in the cockpit of the No. 77 Porsche 911 RSR with team owner Christian Ried and Porsche Young Professional Matt Campbell. In 2018, the trio scored a class victory at the 24 Hours of Le Mans. For the 2019 motor racing season, Andlauer will continue to contest the Sports Car World Endurance Championship WEC. Moreover, after winning the two final rounds of the Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup in Mexico City, the Porsche-supported Frenchman is one of hot favourites in the international one-make race series, which runs as support to the Formula 1.
